Old Business	Tobacco-Free policy updates	A discussion took place on getting letters of support from organizations that would support tobacco-free policy improvements at the Suwannee River Fair. The Levy County Fair policy was shared with the group as an example of what surrounding counties have decided to do for tobacco policies at local fairs. The Partnership may have an opportunity to present to the fair board in the spring to discuss their current policy.
	Through With Chew Week	The activities of the week were discussed and all of the medical offices and businesses who participated, plus each SWAT club.
New Business	Sponsorships for next fiscal year	Partnership members should discuss and decide if there are additional sponsorships we would like to add for the next fiscal year. The Partnership would like to continue sponsoring the youth fair if they agree to put a written tobacco policy in place. The members also voted to remain as sponsors of Christmas on Main for next year. These were unanimous votes.
	Legislative Updates	Updates on current proposed bills in the Florida Legislature were discussed.  investigated by the Tobacco Prevention Specialist between now and the next Partnership meeting.
	SWAT Update	SWAT youth discussed the Through With Chew Week activity of the Trenton SWAT 4-H Club and explained the concept behind the upcoming Kick Butt's Day photovoice campaign to highlight point of sale issues.
